

HURRICANE IRMA UPDATE

Sept. 7, 2017 – 2 p.m. ET

We continue to closely monitor the path of Hurricane Irma. Given the storm's projected path, the following cruises have been cancelled:

- Carnival Liberty – Sept. 7 three-day Bahamas cruise from Port Canaveral
- Carnival Victory – Sept. 8 three-day Bahamas cruise from Miami
- Carnival Splendor – Sept. 9 – five-day Eastern Caribbean cruise from Port Everglades
- Carnival Liberty – Sept. 10 – four-day Bahamas cruise from Port Canaveral

A full refund will be provided to all guests who were scheduled to sail on cancelled voyages.

We remain in constant contact with port officials regarding potential port closures in South and Central Florida. Given the uncertainty of the storm's impact, we will be shortening the duration of several upcoming cruises. Guests who sail on the shortened cruises will receive a pro-rated refund of their cruise fare. Guests who wish to cancel due to the modified cruise duration may do so and receive a future cruise credit equal to the amount of their cruise fare.

Additional voyages currently affected at this time:

Carnival Paradise – Sept. 7

Will depart from Tampa today. Guests will be informed of our itinerary this afternoon.

Carnival Sensation – Sept. 7
